

50 YEARS of I.I. NEW YORK CHAPTER

20th October – New York Botanical Garden, Bronx

Esteemed member JUDITH S. HATA will present 2 demonstrations

At the Kiku Festival

1 & 2 PM at a tent in front of the Conservatory

KIKU has been in the planning for 5 years in cooperation with gardens in Japan. Some rare ‘mums, not seen in the USA before, are included in the exhibit. Bonsai from both the Yama Ki Bonsai Society and some American masters are in the Conservatory. There are activities for children focused on Japanese culture.

For directions and a full description of the Festival featuring the Art of the Chrysanthemum go to www.nybg.org

NEW YORK CHAPTER OPENS ITS 50th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

You have read about this in the recent NEWSLETTER. But an update on the day’s festivities is that at the 25 October luncheon and Ohara Demonstration will include a RAFFLE of some fine containers from Margaret Boehm’s collection.

Send in your reservation for luncheon and the Demo’ on 25 October at 3 West 51st Street (between 5th & 6th Avenues), NYC.